In Search of Henry Stafford Fiske

This issue describes the life and work of the author's ancestor, Henry Stafford Fisk, an early Rutland minister whose art pieces the author is in search of. This article gives a biography of both Fisk, and Stephen Longfellow Fiske, who is the author and a student of New York University. The article describes Henry Stafford Fisk's travels. It also discussed Henry Fisk's paintings and the work he put into some of the churches he served. Articles from the Rutland Herald are included.
