

Rutland Historical Society Quarterly
Volume 35 No 2
The 1908 Diary of Charlotte Chaffee

The first half of Charlotte Chaffee's diary was written between the months of January and July, 1908. She describes returning to school in Washington, D.C., and her involvement with friends and public events. Charlotte also discusses her attendance at plays, tourist sights, sorority meetings, dances, and church. In May, she left school and headed home for the summer.