Growing Up In West Rutland: A Jewish Heritage

This issue of the quarterly contains a portion of Clara Eisen's genealogy assignment completed at the Community College of Vermont in 1990. Eisen recollects her childhood spent growing up in West Rutland. Eisen draws attention to many aspects of her childhood, including, but not limited to, her family, education, Jewish heritage, and home life. Eisen also includes many authentic family photographs and photographs of Rutland and West Rutland during the mid-1900s.
