

Rutland Historical Society Quarterly

Vol.18, No.4, 1988

Lewellyn J. Egelston

“The World of L J E” written by Eleanor J. Elwert explores the private and political life of Lewellyn J. Egelston 1868-1943.

Newspaper articles, family scrapbooks and family pictures explore aspects of his life as president of the New England Business College Association; Republican Chairman of Rutland County; State Senator; and Probate Judge. The sampling of newspaper clippings in scrapbooks cover various topics of his interests from serious ones to those of lesser import spanning the years from 1913 to 1944.

Accompanying the article are various pictures of Mr. Egelston, including one in his Mason’s regalia. A number of family members, both current and ancestral, are shown as well.

An interesting recollection and tribute of an important man of his time.