

Rutland Historical Society Quarterly Vol.2, No.1, 1971

Howe's Candy Shop

The Cover of this issue features a 1912 photograph of Howe's Candy Shop on Center Street with the names and pictures of the women who worked there.

A featured article describes a presentation by Mrs. Jean Schramm proprietress of the Enchanted Doll House in Manchester Center of her collection of old dolls, toys and games. Also pictured is F.M. Wilson preparing for a balloon ride and aloft on his way to Barnard, Vermont, along with his passenger Mr. West.

A major section of the issue is given over to a "Who's Who" of individuals active in the Historical Society including Mrs. Alton Swan a genealogist specializing in Rutland County, and Norman E. Favor who studied architecture and historic sites in Rutland County.

A picture on the back cover shows the Sang Lung Chinese Laundry on Center Street in business in 1867.
