

Rutland Historical Society Quarterly

Vol.45, No.4, 2015

The RUTLAND As A Way of Life

“The Rutland As A Way Of Life” presents the 2016 annual calendar as an introduction to the Rutland Railroad, and to the people for whom the railroad was a way of life. Each month illustrates a special event.

The cover pictures Engineer Elmer Drake and Conductor Ellis Stone; Followed by:

January: Engineer Michael L. Reilly retired 1956 after 46 years. February: Conductor William P. Keefe; General Manager S.M. Rogers and President Gardner A. Caverly.

March: G. Dubray,”L.Gleason, R. White,C. Clark

April: A group picture of the Passenger Shop employees 1936. May: Bowling League officers Susie Shaw and Vi Terrill 1954. June: The Rutland Railroad baseball team 1930.

July: The remodeled Passenger Car Shop 1953-54

August: Tony Dolphin, volunteer as coach and umpire.

September: Ms. Carlene Johnson Miss Rutland of 1955

October: 1909 photo of employees enjoying a wrestling match. November: Five employee children with a diesel model. December: 1871 photo of seven engineers.

Back Cover: 1956 photo of the Rutland Railroad yard.