Titans of Rutland Trucking (1930-1993)

“Titans of Rutland Trucking” by David Zsido brings to life memories of the R.E. Spear Truck Company. On a suggestion by Roger “Doc” West, the author contacted Sandy Crow who provided photographs and other memorabilia of the firm.

This issue is the result; the story of a company, its drivers, their life and its dangers, accompanied by a number of photographs.

Well written, and of interest to anyone concerned with truck history, and business life in the Commercial world of Rutland from 1930 to 1993.
