

Rutland Historical Society Quarterly

Vol. 6, No. 2 & 3, 1976

West Street

The Cover's 1887 photograph pictures the remains of the American House destroyed by fire. It ultimately became a part of the Only Apartments.

The contents of the issue focus primarily on resources available to individuals researching local history, including Five libraries; public records; and standard reference works.

Three photographs of well known individuals from the Brown-Ross album are included.
