

Rutland Historical Society Quarterly

Vol.8, No.3, 1978

John Q. Citizen

A Bicentennial Celebration with hundreds of citizens of Rutland participating, gathered on May 10th, 1978 for a reading and discussion of the Declaration of Independence in all the schools classes.

This issue is dedicated to that event, featuring photographs of numerous participants, and a description of the kits that were assembled containing a copy of the Declaration.

An additional event took place at the statue of the Green Mountain Boy in Federal Park, commemorating Vermont's admission in 1791 as the 14th State.
